

Phillip Island RSL – Courtesy Bus – Terms and Conditions

1. The Phillip island RSL Sub-branch Courtesy Bus, is available for members and their guests only. If guests are not a member, they may fill out a membership form with their applicable information at the time of ride. Our concierge may be of assistance.
2. The Courtesy Bus is only to be used to transport people to and from residences.
3. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the Courtesy Bus is not always guaranteed and may not always be available to pick up and drop off patrons.
4. To book a ride to or from the Phillip Island RSL with the Courtesy Bus, you need to be patronizing 'The RSL' immediately before or after the ride. Proof of either may be requested, in the form of a receipt by the driver.
5. Pick-up's will be scheduled in order of request, and/or based on efficiency of routes determined by the driver. Drop-off's are not guaranteed, only when/as schedule allows and at our driver's discretion.
6. Wait times for drives may vary depending on demand. The driver / concierge will advise of approximate wait times at time of call.
7. No food or alcohol may be consumed in the bus, due to licensing laws.
8. Users of the Courtesy Bus are expected to behave in a respectful and courteous manner. The bus driver and the venue reserve the right to refuse rides to anyone who is displaying unruly/abusive behavior.
9. Consistently abusive behavior may result in 'ban periods' from the use of this service, and is at managements discretion.
10. Current pick-up's & drop-off's are within the boundary of Phillip Island: Cape Woolamai, Surf Beach, Sunderland Bay, Smith's Beach, Cowes and surrounds.
11. For security reasons all our vehicles are equipped with CCTV and audio recording devices – consent is given by entering the vehicle.
12. Management reserve the right to change / alter these 'Terms and Conditions' at any time and without notice.